

and increase the maximum fines for willful violation of consumer safety laws from $1.8 million to $100 million.

I expect the Senate to move important legislation in this area before the holiday. The House, led by Congressman BOBBY RUSH, is engaged in a similar effort on the House side.

If we are going to pass stronger consumer product safety legislation, it is vital that we have bipartisan cooperation and pursue this legislation in a bipartisan fashion. I support the effort led by Senators INOUE and PRYOR to reach out to Senators STEVENS and SUNUNU of the Commerce Committee to do just that.

I encourage these efforts to continue in order to produce a robust bill that will improve consumer safety and the functioning of the CPSC.

It is a noncontroversial, bipartisan idea that the American public expects.

TRIBUTE TO MAGGIE LAINE WEBB

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, today, in Moline, IL, Maggie Laine Webb will be buried.

A promising career took Maggie away from Moline. Sadly, gun violence has brought her home.

Maggie Webb was working at the Van Maur department store in Omaha last Wednesday when a 19-year-old man opened fire with an AK-47 assault rifle, killing eight people and wounding five more before taking his own life.

Maggie Webb was the youngest of the gunman's victims. She was just 24; she would have turned 25 in 2 weeks.

She had transferred to Omaha from another Von Maur department store just 6 weeks earlier. In Omaha, Maggie was a store manager—a position of unusual responsibility for someone her age. But then, Maggie Webb was, by all accounts, an unusually responsible, talented young woman.

At Moline High School, where she graduated in 2001, Maggie was a softball standout, she ran track, and she was involved in student council and many other activities. She went on to graduate in 2005 from Illinois State University.

News of her death has hit many of her former teachers at Moline High School hard. Bill Burrus, the school principal, said one teacher remarked of Maggie, "She was one of the good ones," paused, and then said, "No, one of the great ones."

Maggie Webb is survived by her parents, Dave and Vicki Webb, of Port Byron, IL, and her two older sisters.

Our thoughts, prayers, and condolences are with the Webb family and all of the families affected by this senseless violence.

FURTHER CHANGES TO S. CON. RES. 21

Mr. CONRAD. Mr. President, section 307 of S. Con. Res. 21, the 2008 budget resolution, permits the chairman of the Senate Budget Committee to revise the allocations, aggregates, and other appropriate levels for legislation, including one or more bills and amendments, that reauthorizes the 2002 farm bill or similar or related programs, provides for revenue changes, or any combination thereof. Section 307 authorizes the revisions provided that certain conditions are met, including that amounts provided in the legislation for the above purposes not exceed $20 billion over the period of fiscal years 2007 through 2012 and that the legislation not worsen the deficit over the period of the total of fiscal years 2007 through 2012 or the period of the total of fiscal years 2007 through 2017.

I find that Senate amendment No. 3711 offered by Senator LUGAR to Senate amendment No. 3500, an amendment in the nature of a substitute to H.R. 2419, satisfies the conditions of the deficit-neutral reserve fund for the farm bill. Therefore, pursuant to section 307, I am adjusting the aggregates in the 2008 budget resolution, as well as the allocation provided to the Senate Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry Committee.

I ask unanimous consent to have the following revisions to S. Con. Res. 21 RECORDED.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

FURTHER CHANGES TO S. CON. RES. 21

Mr. CONRAD. Mr. President, earlier today, pursuant to section 307 of S. Con. Res. 21, I filed revisions to S. Con. Res. 21, the 2008 budget resolution. Those revisions were made for Senate amendment No. 3711, an amendment offered to Senate amendment No. 3500, an amendment in the nature of a substitute to H.R. 2419.

The Senate did not adopt Senate amendment No. 3711. As a consequence, I am further revising the 2008 budget resolution and reversing the adjustments made pursuant to section 307 to the aggregates and the allocation provided to the Senate Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry Committee for Senate amendment No. 3711.

I ask unanimous consent that the following revisions to S. Con. Res. 21 be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:
